Save for retirement with the John Hancock SIMPLE IRA

Your Employer has just made saving for your retirement easier for you by selecting the John Hancock Investments SIMPLE IRA.

The SIMPLE IRA is a salary deferral retirement Plan for Employers with no more than 100 eligible Employees. As a Plan Participant, you can make pretax salary deferrals into your SIMPLE IRA account. Your Employer also contributes to your account each year, making your savings grow even faster. The SIMPLE IRA provides eligible Employees with a convenient way to invest for retirement and reduce current taxes. Generally, you're eligible to participate if you received $5,000 or more from your Employer in any two preceding calendar years and you're expected to receive at least $5,000 during the current year. Please consult with your financial advisor to determine if a SIMPLE IRA is right for you.

Benefits of participating in the John Hancock Investments SIMPLE IRA

Your salary deferral contributions reduce today's tax bill

Contributions to your SIMPLE IRA are deducted from your salary on a pretax basis. By deferring part of your salary, you reduce your taxable wages, which reduces your annual tax liability. Due to the passing of the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001, SIMPLE IRA contribution limits may increase each year. The legislation also allows for a catch-up contribution for SIMPLE IRA Plan Participants over the age of 50.

Employer contributions help your savings accumulate faster

Your Employer can select either of the following options:

A matching contribution of up to 3% of Compensation based on the amount of your salary deferral or

A 2% nonelective contribution to all eligible Employees

To be eligible for an Employer-matching contribution, you must make salary deferral contributions. However, if your Employer chooses a nonelective contribution, you will receive your Employer's contribution whether or not you choose to contribute to the Plan. Each year your Employer will inform you of the Employer contribution and other Plan details at least 60 days before the start of the Plan Year.

SIMPLE IRA contribution limits	Catch-up provision for Participants over age 50
2017: $12,500	2017: $3,000
2018: $12,500	2018: $3,000

Pretax saving with a SIMPLE IRA can keep money in your pocket.

	SIMPLE IRA	Taxable account
Annual salary	$25,000	$25,000
$200/month pretax contribution	$2,400	N/A
Taxable income	$22,600	$25,000
Federal taxes*	$3,390	$3,880
$200/month after-tax contribution	N/A	$2,400
Take-home pay	$19,210	$18,720
Tax savings	$490	$0

* Based on a 28% tax bracket.

Please keep in mind that mutual funds are not insured by the FDIC, not deposits or other obligations of the institution and are not guaranteed by the institution, and are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Establishing your SIMPLE IRA account is easy!

After reading the materials in your SIMPLE IRA kit, just follow the three steps outlined below

1. Determine how much you want to contribute

You may not contribute more than $12,500 for 2017 and 2018.

Please note: If your Employer has chosen to make a matching contribution, you will not receive the Employer match unless you contribute to the Plan.

2. Select your investments

Select the John Hancock Investments funds for your account. Before investing, be sure to read the prospectus included in your enrollment kit, which contains complete information, including expenses. Your investment professional can help you select the funds best suited for your needs.

3. Complete the following forms.

Complete the forms listed below and return them to your Employer. Be sure to keep copies for your own files.

1. SIMPLE IRA Adoption Agreement (Form 1—used by John Hancock to establish your account)
2. SIMPLE IRA salary reduction agreement (Form 2—for your Employer's records)

Transfers

If your Employer has decided to change providers and move your Plan to John Hancock from another provider, there are two ways to transfer your account to John Hancock:

Direct asset transfer—By completing the John Hancock SIMPLE IRA rollover-transfer form (form 3), you instruct your current SIMPLE IRA trustee or custodian to transfer dollars directly to John Hancock Investments. There is no limit to the number of direct asset transfers you can make.

SIMPLE IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA rollover—You request a check, payable to yourself, from your current SIMPLE IRA custodian for the full amount of your SIMPLE IRA assets. You then redeposit this amount in your new SIMPLE IRA no later than 60 days after you received your distribution. You can make a SIMPLE IRA rollover only once every 12 months.

You cannot combine or commingle a distribution from a qualified retirement Plan, traditional IRA, or SEP IRA with your SIMPLE IRA assets. Commingling will negate your ability to transfer any portion of your qualified Plan distribution into a new Employer's Plan or to take advantage of any future tax averaging. You may only transfer SIMPLE IRA assets into a SIMPLE IRA.

Tax-deferred compounding also boosts the value of your account

Not only do you save on current income taxes when you contribute to a SIMPLE IRA, but all interest, dividends, and capital gains accumulate tax deferred (free of current taxes) until you begin taking money out of your account. As you can see from the graph below, tax-deferred compounding can make a big difference in the value of your retirement account.

Hypothetical tax-deferred accumulation for an investor contributing $12,500 per year, for 30 years, at an 8% annual return.

The example above is hypothetical and is for illustrative purposes only. This hypothetical example does not take into account taxes, fees, charges, and expenses, which would result in lower total dollar amounts. As market conditions fluctuate, some investments may fall out of favor with the market and underperform. Investment decisions could adversely affect returns. Please contact your financial professional to discuss your investing needs.

You're in charge of your account

You set up your account, decide how much you want to defer (up to the IRS limit), and select the investments. Each year during the 60-day election period, you can decide whether or not to change the amount of your deferral for the coming year. You can stop contributing to your Plan at any time.

Your account is always 100% vested. This means that all dollars in the account—your own contributions and your Employer's—belong to you. Although your SIMPLE IRA account is intended to fund your retirement, you may withdraw money at any time. There are federal penalties for withdrawing money before you reach age 59½—25% during the first two years after you establish your account and 10% thereafter. Penalties do not apply to withdrawals made for death, disability, medical expenses, health insurance if you become unemployed, education expenses, first-time home buyers ($10,000 lifetime limit), or substantially equal periodic payments. Of course, you'll also have to pay ordinary income tax on the full amount.

Because of the complexity of the tax laws governing retirement distributions, you should always consult your legal counsel or tax advisor before taking a distribution.

4. Designation of beneficiary

Designating beneficiaries is an important part of the estate planning process. Please take care in choosing your beneficiaries and, of course, make plans to periodically review your beneficiaries to make sure nothing should change. We have provided some basic information about this process below; however, if you have specific questions regarding how this will affect your estate Plan, we recommend that you contact your tax advisor or estate attorney.

John Hancock Investments allows you to place certain restrictions on distributions made to your named beneficiaries. In order to take advantage of this feature, please leave this section blank and complete the John Hancock Investments individual retirement account (IRA) restricted beneficiary designation form, available by calling John Hancock Signature Services, Inc. at 800-225-5291 or by visiting our website at jhinvestments.com.

- Complete the required information for each beneficiary named.
- You may change your beneficiary(ies) at any time after the initial designation by notifying John Hancock Signature Services, Inc. in writing.
- If no beneficiaries are designated, or if there are no beneficiaries living at the time of your death, your estate will generally be entitled to your account assets.
- Percentages for beneficiaries must total 100% for each section. If not, transfers shall be made proportionally on the percentages stated. If no percentages are indicated, each primary beneficiary who survives you will receive equal percentages of your account.
- If multiple beneficiaries are listed and a beneficiary does not survive you, his or her percentage will be divided equally among the remaining beneficiaries, unless previously stated otherwise.
- Contingent beneficiaries are entitled to receive your account only if there are no surviving primary beneficiaries at the time of your death.
- For trusts, please list the trust name, the name(s) of the trustee(s), and the trust establishment date.

4. Designation of beneficiary (continued)

This section should be reviewed if the residence of the SIMPLE IRA holder is located in a community property state and the SIMPLE IRA holder is married.

- I am not married. I understand that if I marry in the future, I must complete a new SIMPLE IRA designation of beneficiary form.
- I am married. I understand that if I choose to designate a primary beneficiary other than my spouse, my spouse must sign below.

Spousal consent—Required if your spouse is not named as sole primary beneficiary and you reside in a community or marital property state. You should consult with your own legal or tax advisor to determine if spousal consent is required.

- I am the spouse for the above-named SIMPLE IRA account owner. I acknowledge that a designation of a nonspouse beneficiary may not be effective in my state without my consent. I hereby relinquish any interest that I may have in this SIMPLE IRA and consent to the beneficiary designation(s) stated above. I assume full responsibility for any adverse consequences that may result.

7. Signature, taxpayer identification number, and certification

Note: You must sign and enter your taxpayer identification number below. Your account cannot be established without this required information.

I hereby adopt this SIMPLE IRA Plan, appointing John Hancock Life & Health Insurance Co. to serve as custodian and to perform the administrative services of this Plan. I have received and read the prospectus(es) for the fund(s) in which I am making my SIMPLE IRA investment. In addition, I have received and read a copy of the Adoption Agreement, custodial agreement, and disclosure statement, and I understand the eligibility requirements for the type of IRA deposit I am making, as well as any fees to which my account(s) may be subject. I understand that I am responsible for determining my eligibility for a SIMPLE IRA each year I make a contribution, and that all contributions I make are within the limits set forth by the tax laws. I also assume complete responsibility for the tax consequences of any contributions (including rollover contributions) and distributions that I make. I acknowledge that identifying information is required before the account can be opened and is subject to verification by my financial professional, the fund, or its agents. If verification is unsuccessful, John Hancock may close my account, redeem my shares at the next net asset value, minus any applicable sales charges, and take other steps that it deems reasonable. I understand that under certain circumstances, if no activity occurs in my account within a time period specified by state law, my shares may be transferred to the appropriate state.

Note: The rules for transferring abandoned property vary state by state, so we suggest you contact your state's department of abandoned property if you have any questions regarding requirements.

Certification required of U.S. persons only (including U.S. citizens, U.S. resident aliens, or other U.S. persons)

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown below is my correct taxpayer identification number,
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding,
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person, including a U.S. resident alien (as defined in the IRS Form W-9 instructions), and
4. The FATCA Code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Note: Cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

Please note that, by signing this form, you declare that you make the above certifications under penalties of perjury. Under penalties of perjury, I certify the above statements.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certification required to avoid backup withholding.

SIMPLE IRA salary reduction agreement

Introduction

Instructions

Use this form if you wish to reduce your Compensation and direct the proceeds to your SIMPLE IRA account. This agreement is between you and your Employer. This agreement, and any changes to it, should be filed directly with your Employer. This form should not be sent to John Hancock. Read all sections of this salary reduction agreement before signing. Please print in all capital letters and use black ink.

2. Terms of agreement (To be completed by the Employer)

Limits on elective deferrals—Subject to the requirements of the Employer's SIMPLE IRA Plan, each Employee who is eligible to enroll as a contributing Participant may set aside a percentage of his or her pay into the Plan (elective deferrals) by signing this salary reduction agreement. This salary reduction agreement replaces any earlier salary reduction agreement and will remain in effect as long as the Employee remains an eligible Employee or until he or she provides the Employer with a new salary reduction agreement as permitted by the Plan. A Participant who is aged 50 or older by the end of the year may be allowed to make catch-up contributions. A contributing Participant's elective deferrals (excluding catch-up contributions) may not exceed $12,500 for 2017 and 2018 (after 2018, this amount is subject to cost-of-living adjustments).

Changing this agreement—An Employee may change the percentage of pay he or she is setting aside into the Plan. Any Employee who wishes to make such a change must complete and sign a new salary reduction agreement and give it to the Employer during the election period or any other period the Employer specifies on the participation notice and summary description.

Terminating this agreement—An Employee may terminate this salary reduction agreement. After terminating this salary reduction agreement, an Employee cannot again enroll as a contributing Participant until the first day of the year following the year of termination or any other date the Employer specifies on the participation notice and summary description.

Effective date—This salary reduction agreement will be effective for the pay period that begins _____.

Elective deferral agreement

I, the undersigned Employee, wish to set aside, as elective deferrals, _____% or $ _____ (which equals _____% of my current rate of pay) into my Employer's SIMPLE IRA Plan by way of payroll deduction.

Note: If you are eligible to defer, your SIMPLE IRA Plan permits catch-up contributions, and you have attained age 50 before the close of the Plan Year, you may make catch-up contributions under the SIMPLE IRA Plan. Certain limits, as required by law, must be met prior to being eligible to make catch-up contributions. Your election above will pertain to elective deferrals, which may include catch-up contributions. See your Employer for additional information, including the catch-up contribution limit for the year.

I agree that my pay will be reduced in the manner I have indicated above, and I affirmatively elect to have this amount contributed to the investments listed below. This salary reduction agreement will continue to be effective while I am employed, unless I change or terminate it, as explained in Section 2. I acknowledge that I have read this entire salary reduction agreement, I understand it, and I agree to its terms. Furthermore, I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the participation notice and summary description.

SIMPLE INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT CUSTODIAL ACCOUNT AGREEMENT FORM 5305-SA

(Under Sections 408(p) of the Internal Revenue Code)

REV. April 2017

The Participant named on the Application is establishing a savings incentive match Plan for Employees of small Employers individual retirement account (SIMPLE IRA) under sections 408(a) and 408(p) to provide for his or her retirement and for the support of his or her beneficiaries after death.

The Custodian named on the Application has given the Participant the disclosure statement required by Regulations section 1.408-6.

The Participant and the Custodian make the following agreement:

ARTICLE I

The Custodian will accept cash contributions made on behalf of the Participant by the Participant's Employer under the terms of a SIMPLE IRA Plan described in section 408(p). In addition, the Custodian will accept transfers or rollovers from other SIMPLE IRAs of the Participant and, after the 2-year period of participation defined in section 72(t)(6), transfers or rollovers from any eligible retirement plan (as defined in section 402(c)(8)(B)) other than a Roth IRA or a designated Roth account. No other contributions will be accepted by the Custodian.

ARTICLE II

The Participant's interest in the balance in the custodial account is nonforfeitable.

ARTICLE III

1. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in life insurance contracts, nor may the assets of the custodial account be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund (within the meaning of section 408(a)(5)).

2. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in collectibles (within the meaning of section 408(m)) except as otherwise permitted by section 408(m)(3), which provides an exception for certain gold, silver, and platinum coins, coins issued under the laws of any state, and certain bullion.

ARTICLE IV

1. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the distribution of the Participant's interest in the custodial account shall be made in accordance with the following requirements and shall otherwise comply with section 408(a)(6) and the Regulations thereunder, the provisions of which are herein incorporated by reference.

2. The Participant's entire interest in the custodial account must be, or begin to be, distributed not later than the Participant's required beginning date, April 1 following the calendar year in which the Participant reaches age 70½. By that date, the Participant may elect, in a manner acceptable to the Custodian, to have the balance in the custodial account distributed in:

(a) A single sum or

(b) Payments over a period not longer than the life of the Participant or the joint lives of the Participant and his or her designated beneficiary.

3. If the Participant dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her, the remaining interest will be distributed as follows:

(a) If the Participant dies on or after the required beginning date and:

(i) the designated beneficiary is the Participant's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the surviving spouse's life expectancy as determined each year until such spouse's death, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer. Any interest remaining after the spouse's death will be distributed over such spouse's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year of the spouse's death and reduced by one for each subsequent year, or, if distributions are being made over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below, over such period.

(ii) the designated beneficiary is not the Participant's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the beneficiary's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year following the death of the Participant and reduced by one for each subsequent year, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer.

(iii) there is no designated beneficiary, the remaining interest will be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of the Participant as determined in the year of the Participant's death and reduced by one for each subsequent year.

(b) If the Participant dies before the required beginning date, the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (i) below or, if elected or there is no designated beneficiary, in accordance with paragraph (ii) below:

(i) the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), starting by the end of the calendar year following the year of the Participant's death. If, however, the designated beneficiary is the Participant's surviving spouse, then this distribution is not required to begin before the end of the calendar year in which the Participant would have reached age 70½. But, in such case, if the Participant's surviving spouse dies before distributions are required to begin, then the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), over such spouse's designated beneficiary's life expectancy, or in accordance with paragraph (ii) below if there is no such designated beneficiary.

(ii) the remaining interest will be distributed by the end of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the Participant's death.

4. If the Participant dies before his or her entire interest has been distributed and if the designated beneficiary is not the Participant's surviving spouse, no additional contributions may be accepted in the account.

5. The minimum amount that must be distributed each year, beginning with the year containing the Participant's required beginning date, is known as the "required minimum distribution" and is determined as follows:

(a) the required minimum distribution under paragraph 2(b) for any year, beginning with the year the Participant reaches age 70½, is the Participant's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the distribution period in the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. However, if the Participant's designated beneficiary is his or her surviving spouse, the required minimum distribution for a year shall not be more than the Participant's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the number in the joint and last survivor table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. The required minimum distribution for a year under this paragraph (a) is determined using the Participant's (or, if applicable, the Participant and spouse's) attained age (or ages) in the year.

(b) the required minimum distribution under paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i) for a year, beginning with the year following the year of the Participant's death (or the year the Participant would have reached age 70½, if applicable under paragraph 3(b)(i)) is the account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the life expectancy (in the single life table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9) of the individual specified in such paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i).

(c) the required minimum distribution for the year the Participant reaches age 70½ can be made as late as April 1 of the following year. The required minimum distribution for any other year must be made by the end of such year.

6. The owner of two or more IRAs (other than Roth IRAs) may satisfy the minimum distribution requirements described above by taking from one IRA the amount required to satisfy the requirement for another in accordance with the Regulations under section 408(a)(6).

ARTICLE V

1. The Participant agrees to provide the Custodian with all information necessary to prepare any reports required by sections 408(i) and 408(l)(2) and Regulations sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6.

2. The Custodian agrees to submit to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and Participant the reports prescribed by the IRS.

3. The Custodian also agrees to provide the Participant's Employer the summary description described in section 408(l)(2) unless this SIMPLE IRA is a transfer SIMPLE IRA.

ARTICLE VI

Notwithstanding any other articles which may be added or incorporated, the provisions of Articles I through III and this sentence will be controlling. Any additional articles inconsistent with sections 408(a) and 408(p) and the related Regulations will be invalid.

ARTICLE VII

This Agreement will be amended as necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code and the related Regulations. Other amendments may be made with the consent of the persons whose signatures appear on the Application.

ARTICLE VIII

8.01 Definitions: In this part of this Agreement (Article VIII), the words "you" and "your" mean the Participant, the words "we," "us" and "our" mean the Custodian, "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code, and "Regulations" means the Treasury Regulations.

8.02 Notices and Change of Address: Any required notice regarding this SIMPLE IRA will be considered effective when we send it to the intended recipient at the last address which we have in our records. Any notice to be given to us will be considered effective when we actually receive it. You, or the intended recipient, must notify us of any change of address.

8.03 Representations and Responsibilities: You represent and warrant to us that any information you have given or will give us with respect to this Agreement is complete and accurate. Further, you agree that any directions you give us, or action you take will be proper under this Agreement, and that we are entitled to rely upon any such information or directions. If we fail to receive directions from you regarding any transaction, or if we receive ambiguous directions regarding any transaction, or we, in good faith, believe that any transaction requested is in dispute, we reserve the right to take no action until further clarification acceptable to us is received from you or the appropriate government or judicial authority. We shall not be responsible for losses of any kind that may result from your directions to us or your actions or failures to act, and you agree to reimburse us for any loss we may incur as a result of such directions, actions or failures to act. We shall not be responsible for any penalties, taxes, judgments or expenses you incur in connection with your SIMPLE IRA. We have no duty to determine whether your contributions or distributions comply with the Code, Regulations, rulings or this Agreement. We may permit you to appoint, through written notice acceptable to us, an authorized agent to act on your behalf with respect to this Agreement (e.g., attorney-in-fact, executor, administrator, investment manager), however, we have no duty to determine the validity of such appointment or any instrument appointing such authorized agent. We shall not be responsible for losses of any kind that may result from directions, actions or failures to act by your authorized agent, and you agree to reimburse us for any loss we may incur as a result of such directions, actions or failures to act by your authorized agent. You will have sixty (60) days after you receive any documents, statements or other information from us to notify us in writing of any errors or inaccuracies reflected in these documents, statements or other information. If you do not notify us within 60 days, the documents, statements or other information shall be deemed correct and accurate, and we shall have no further liability or obligation for such documents, statements, other information or the transactions described therein.

By performing services under this Agreement we are acting as your agent. You acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring fiduciary status upon us. We shall not be required to perform any additional services unless specifically agreed to under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or as required under the Code and the Regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to SIMPLE IRAs. You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless for any and all claims, actions, proceedings, damages, judgments, liabilities, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, arising from, or in connection with this Agreement.

To the extent written instructions or notices are required under this Agreement, we may accept or provide such information in any other form permitted by the Code or applicable Regulations.

8.04 Disclosure of Account Information: We may use agents and/or subcontractors to assist in administering your SIMPLE IRA. We may release nonpublic personal information regarding your SIMPLE IRA to such providers as necessary to provide the products and services made available under this agreement, and to evaluate our business operations and analyze potential product, service, or process improvements.

8.05 Service Fees: We have the right to charge an annual service fee or other designated fees (e.g., a transfer, rollover or termination fee) for maintaining your SIMPLE IRA. In addition, we have the right to be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses, including legal expenses, we incur in connection with the administration of your SIMPLE IRA. We may charge you separately for any fees or expenses, or we may deduct the amount of the fees or expenses from the assets in your SIMPLE IRA at our discretion. We reserve the right to charge any additional fee upon 30 days' notice to you that the fee will be effective. Fees such as subtransfer agent fees or commissions may be paid to us by third parties for assistance in performing certain transactions with respect to this SIMPLE IRA.

Any brokerage commissions attributable to the assets in your SIMPLE IRA will be charged to your SIMPLE IRA. You cannot reimburse your SIMPLE IRA for those commissions.

8.06 Investment of Amounts in the SIMPLE IRA: You have exclusive responsibility for and control over the investment of the assets in your SIMPLE IRA, provided that such assets may only be invested in shares ("Shares") of John Hancock open-end mutual funds ("JH Funds"). All transactions shall be subject to any and all restrictions or limitations, direct or indirect, which are imposed by our charter, articles of incorporation, or bylaws; any and all applicable federal and state laws and Regulations; the rules, Regulations, customs and usages of any exchange, market or clearing house where the transaction is executed; our policies and practices; and this Agreement. After your death, your beneficiary(ies) shall have the right to direct the investment of your SIMPLE IRA assets, subject to the same conditions that applied to you during your lifetime under this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 8.03 of this article). We shall have no discretion to direct any investment in your SIMPLE IRA. We assume no responsibility for rendering investment advice with respect to your SIMPLE IRA, nor will we offer any opinion or judgment to you on matters concerning the value or suitability of any investment or proposed investment for your SIMPLE IRA. In the absence of instructions from you, or if your instructions are not in a form acceptable to us, we shall have the right to hold any uninvested amounts in cash, and we shall have no responsibility to invest uninvested cash unless and until directed by you. We will not exercise the voting rights and other shareholder rights with respect to investments in your SIMPLE IRA, except in accordance with your instructions in a form acceptable to us. However, if you do not deliver timely voting instructions to us regarding JH Funds, you hereby authorize us and we may vote such Shares for or against any proposal in the same proportion as all JH Fund Shares for which voting instructions have been received.

You will select the type of investment for your SIMPLE IRA assets, provided, however, that your selection of investments shall be limited to those types of investments that we are authorized by our charter, articles of incorporation, or bylaws to offer and do in fact offer for investment in SIMPLE IRAs. We may, in our sole discretion, make available to you, additional investment offerings, which shall be limited to publicly traded securities, mutual funds, money market instruments and other investments that are obtainable by us and that we are capable of holding in the ordinary course of our business.

- 8.07 Beneficiary(ies): If you die before you receive all of the amounts in your SIMPLE IRA, payments from your SIMPLE IRA will be made to your beneficiary(ies). We have no obligation to pay to your beneficiaries until such time we are notified of your death by receiving a valid death certificate.

You may designate one or more persons or entities as beneficiary of your SIMPLE IRA. This designation can only be made on a form provided by or acceptable to us, and it will only be effective when it is filed with us during your lifetime. Unless otherwise specified, each beneficiary designation you file with us will cancel all previous ones. The consent of a beneficiary(ies) shall not be required for you to revoke a beneficiary designation. If you have designated both primary and contingent beneficiaries and no primary beneficiary(ies) survives you, the contingent beneficiary(ies) shall acquire the designated share of your SIMPLE IRA. If you do not designate a beneficiary, or if all of your primary and contingent beneficiary(ies) predecease you, your estate will be the beneficiary.

Unless otherwise specified, a spouse beneficiary shall have all rights as granted under the Code or applicable Regulations to treat your SIMPLE IRA as his or her own.

We may allow, if permitted by state law, an original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary(ies) (the beneficiary(ies) who is entitled to receive distribution(s) from an inherited SIMPLE IRA at the time of your death) to name a successor beneficiary(ies) for the inherited SIMPLE IRA. This designation can only be made on a form provided by or acceptable to us, and it will only be effective when it is filed with us during the original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary's(ies) lifetime. Unless otherwise specified, each beneficiary designation form that the original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary(ies) files with us will cancel all previous ones. The consent of a successor beneficiary(ies) shall not be required for the original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary(ies) to revoke a successor beneficiary(ies) designation. If the original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary(ies) does not designate a successor beneficiary(ies), his or her estate will be the successor beneficiary. In no event shall the successor beneficiary(ies) be able to extend the distribution period beyond that required for the original SIMPLE IRA beneficiary.

If we so choose, for any reason (e.g., due to limitations of our charter or bylaws), we may require that a beneficiary of a deceased SIMPLE IRA owner take a total distribution of all SIMPLE IRA assets by December 31 of the year following the year of death.

- 8.08 Required Minimum Distributions: Your required minimum distribution is calculated using the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. However, if your spouse is your sole designated beneficiary and is more than 10 years younger than you, your required minimum distribution is calculated each year using the joint and last survivor table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9.

If you fail to request your required minimum distribution by your required beginning date, we can, at our complete and sole discretion, do any one of the following:

- make no distribution until you give us a proper withdrawal request;

- distribute your entire SIMPLE IRA to you in a single sum payment; or
- determine your required minimum distribution from your SIMPLE IRA each year based on your life expectancy, calculated using the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9, and pay those distributions to you until you direct otherwise.

We will not be liable for any penalties or taxes related to your failure to take a required minimum distribution.

- 8.09 Termination of Agreement, Resignation, or Removal of Custodian: Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the other. We can resign as Custodian at any time effective 30 days after we mail written notice of our resignation to you. Upon receipt of that notice, you must make arrangements to transfer your SIMPLE IRA to another financial organization. If you do not complete a transfer of your SIMPLE IRA within 30 days from the date we mail the notice to you, we have the right to transfer your SIMPLE IRA assets to a successor SIMPLE IRA custodian or trustee that we choose in our sole discretion, or we may pay your SIMPLE IRA to you in a single sum. We shall not be liable for any actions or failures to act on the part of any successor custodian or trustee, nor for any tax consequences you may incur that result from the transfer or distribution of your assets pursuant to this section.

If this Agreement is terminated, we may charge your SIMPLE IRA a reasonable amount of money that we believe is necessary to cover any associated costs, including but not limited to, one or more of the following:

- any fees, expenses or taxes chargeable against your SIMPLE IRA;
- any penalties or surrender charges associated with the early withdrawal of any savings instrument or other investment in your SIMPLE IRA.

If we are required to comply with Regulations section 1.408-2(e), and we fail to do so, or we are not keeping the records, making the returns or sending the statements as are required by forms or Regulations, the IRS may, after notifying you, require you to substitute another trustee or custodian.

We may establish a policy requiring distribution of the entire balance of your SIMPLE IRA to you in cash or property if the balance of your SIMPLE IRA drops below the minimum balance required under the applicable investment or policy established.

- 8.10 Successor Custodian: If our organization changes its name, reorganizes, merges with another organization (or comes under the control of any federal or state agency), or if our entire organization (or any portion which includes your SIMPLE IRA) is bought by another organization, that organization (or agency) shall automatically become the trustee or custodian of your SIMPLE IRA, but only if it is the type of organization authorized to serve as a SIMPLE IRA trustee or custodian.

- 8.11 Amendments: We have the right to amend this Agreement at any time. Any amendment we make to comply with the Code and related Regulations does not require your consent. You will be deemed to have consented to any other amendment unless, within 30 days from the date we mail the amendment, you notify us in writing that you do not consent.

- 8.12 Withdrawals or Transfers: All requests for withdrawal or transfer shall be in writing on a form provided by or acceptable to us. The method of distribution must be specified in writing. The tax identification number of the recipient must be provided to us before we are obligated to make a distribution. Withdrawals shall be subject to all applicable tax and other laws and Regulations, including possible early withdrawal penalties or surrender charges and withholding requirements.

- 8.13 Transfers from Other Plans: We can receive amounts transferred or rolled over to this SIMPLE IRA from the custodian or trustee of another SIMPLE IRA. We reserve the right not to accept any transfer or rollover.

- 8.14 Liquidation of Assets: We have the right to liquidate assets in your SIMPLE IRA if necessary to make distributions or to pay fees, expenses, taxes, penalties or surrender charges properly chargeable against your SIMPLE IRA. If you fail to direct us as to which assets to liquidate, we will decide, in our complete and sole discretion, and you agree not to hold us liable for any adverse consequences that result from our decision.

- 8.15 Restrictions on the Fund: Neither you nor any beneficiary may sell, transfer or pledge any interest in your SIMPLE IRA in any manner whatsoever, except as provided by law or this Agreement.

The assets in your SIMPLE IRA shall not be responsible for the debts, contracts or torts of any person entitled to distributions under this Agreement.

- 8.16 What Law Applies: This Agreement is subject to all applicable federal and state laws and Regulations. If it is necessary to apply any state law to interpret and administer this Agreement, the law of our domicile shall govern.

If any part of this Agreement is held to be illegal or invalid, the remaining parts shall not be affected. Neither your nor our failure to enforce at any time or for any period of time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such provisions, or your right or our right thereafter to enforce each and every such provision.

- 8.17 Summary Description Requirements: Notwithstanding Article V above, we will be deemed to have satisfied our summary description reporting requirements under Code section 408(l)(2) if either

- a. we provide a summary description directly to you, or
- b. we provide our name, address and withdrawal procedures to you, and your Employer provides you with all other required information.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

PURPOSE OF FORM

Form 5305-SA is a model custodial account agreement that meets the requirements of sections 408(a) and 408(p). However, only Articles I through VII have been reviewed by the IRS. A SIMPLE individual retirement account (SIMPLE IRA) is established after the form is fully executed by both the individual (Participant) and the Custodian. This account must be created in the United States for the exclusive benefit of the Participant and his or her beneficiaries.

Do not file Form 5305-SA with the IRS. Instead, keep it with your records.

For more information on SIMPLE IRAs, including the required disclosures the Custodian must give the Participant, see Pub. 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs); and Pub. 560, Retirement Plans for Small Business (SEP, SIMPLE, and Qualified Plans).

DEFINITIONS

Participant: The Participant is the person who establishes the custodial account.

Custodian: The custodian must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in section 408(n), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as custodian.

Transfer SIMPLE IRA: This SIMPLE IRA is a "transfer SIMPLE IRA" if it is not the original recipient of contributions under any SIMPLE IRA Plan. The summary description requirements of section 408(l)(2) do not apply to transfer SIMPLE IRAs.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Article IV: Distributions made under this article may be made in a single sum, periodic payment, or a combination of both. The distribution option should be reviewed in the year the Participant reaches age 70½ to ensure that the requirements of section 408(a)(6) have been met.

Article VIII: Article VIII and any that follow it may incorporate additional provisions that are agreed to by the Participant and Custodian to complete the agreement. They may include, for example, definitions, investment powers, voting rights, exculpatory provisions, amendment and termination, removal of the Custodian, Custodian's fees, state law requirements, beginning date of distributions, accepting only cash, treatment of excess contributions, prohibited transactions with the Participant, etc. Attach additional pages if necessary.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

RIGHT TO REVOKE YOUR SIMPLE IRA

You have the right to revoke your SIMPLE IRA within seven (7) days of the receipt of the disclosure statement. If revoked, you are entitled to a full return of the contribution you made to your SIMPLE IRA. The amount returned to you would not include an adjustment for such items as sales commissions, administrative expenses, or fluctuation in market value. You may make this revocation only by mailing or delivering a written notice to the Custodian at the address listed on the Application.

If you send your notice by first class mail, your revocation will be deemed mailed as of the postmark date.

If you have any questions about the procedure for revoking your SIMPLE IRA, please call the Custodian at the telephone number listed on the Application.

REQUIREMENTS OF A SIMPLE IRA

A. CASH CONTRIBUTIONS: Your contribution must be in cash, unless it is a rollover contribution.

B. MAXIMUM CONTRIBUTION: The only contributions which may be made to your SIMPLE IRA are Employee elective deferrals under a qualified salary reduction agreement, Employer contributions and other contributions allowed by Code or related Regulations, which are made under a SIMPLE IRA Plan maintained by your Employer. Employee elective deferrals shall not exceed the lesser of 100% of your Compensation for the calendar year or $12,500 for 2017 and 2018, with possible cost-of-living adjustments each year thereafter. Your Employer may make additional contributions to your SIMPLE IRA within the limits prescribed in Internal Revenue Code (Code) section 408(p). Your Employer is required to provide you with information which describes the terms of its SIMPLE IRA Plan.

C. CATCH-UP CONTRIBUTIONS: If you are age 50 or older by the close of the Plan Year, you may make an additional contribution to your SIMPLE IRA. The maximum additional contribution is $3,000 for 2017 and 2018, with possible cost-of-living adjustments each year thereafter.

D. NONFORFEITABILITY: Your interest in your SIMPLE IRA is nonforfeitable.

E. ELIGIBLE CUSTODIANS: The Custodian of your SIMPLE IRA must be a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or a person or entity approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

F. COMMINGLING ASSETS: The assets of your SIMPLE IRA cannot be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.

G. LIFE INSURANCE: No portion of your SIMPLE IRA may be invested in life insurance contracts.

H. COLLECTIBLES: You may not invest the assets of your SIMPLE IRA in collectibles (within the meaning of Code section 408(m)). A collectible is defined as any work of art, rug or antique, metal or gem, stamp or coin, alcoholic beverage, or other tangible personal property specified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). However, specially minted United States gold and silver coins, and certain state-issued coins are permissible investments. Platinum coins and certain gold, silver, platinum or palladium bullion (as described in Code section 408(m)(3)) are also permitted as SIMPLE IRA investments.

I. REQUIRED MINIMUM DISTRIBUTIONS: You are required to take minimum distributions from your SIMPLE IRA at certain times in accordance with Regulations section 1.408-8. Below is a summary of the SIMPLE IRA distribution rules.

1. You are required to take a minimum distribution from your SIMPLE IRA for the year in which you reach age 70½ and for each year thereafter. You must take your first distribution by your required beginning date, which is April 1 of the year following the year you attain age 70½. The minimum distribution for any taxable year is equal to the amount obtained by dividing the account balance at the end of the prior year by the applicable divisor.

2. The applicable divisor is generally determined using the uniform lifetime table provided by the IRS. The table assumes a designated beneficiary exactly 10 years younger than you, regardless of who is named as your beneficiary(ies), if any. If your spouse is your sole designated beneficiary, and is more than 10 years younger than you, the required minimum distribution is determined annually using the actual joint life expectancy of you and your spouse obtained from the joint and last survivor table provided by the IRS, rather than the life expectancy divisor from the uniform lifetime table.

We reserve the right to do any one of the following by April 1 of the year following the year in which you turn age 70½

- (a) make no distribution until you give us a proper withdrawal request,
- (b) distribute your entire SIMPLE IRA to you in a single sum payment, or
- (c) determine your required minimum distribution each year based on your life expectancy calculated using the uniform lifetime table, and pay those distributions to you until you direct otherwise.

If you fail to remove a required minimum distribution, an additional penalty tax of 50 percent is imposed on the amount of the required minimum distribution that should have been taken but was not. You must file IRS Form 5329 along with your income tax return to report and remit any additional taxes to the IRS.

3. Your designated beneficiary is determined based on the beneficiary(ies) designated as of the date of your death, who remains your beneficiary(ies) as of September 30 of the year following the year of your death. If you die,

- (a) on or after your required beginning date, distributions must be made to your beneficiary(ies) over the longer of the single life expectancy of your designated beneficiary(ies), or your remaining life expectancy. If a beneficiary other than an individual or qualified trust as defined in the Regulations is named, you will be treated as having no designated beneficiary of your SIMPLE IRA for purposes of determining the distribution period. If there is no designated beneficiary of your SIMPLE IRA, distributions will commence using your single life expectancy, reduced by one in each subsequent year.

- (b) before your required beginning date, the entire amount remaining in your account will, at the election of your designated beneficiary(ies), either

- (i) be distributed by December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death, or
- (ii) be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of your designated beneficiary(ies) or
- (iii) as indicated on the completed John Hancock Investments Individual Retirement Account Restricted Beneficiary Designation Form.

Unless otherwise specified; if your spouse is your sole designated beneficiary, he or she must elect either option (i) or (ii) by the earlier of December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death, or December 31 of the year you would have attained age 70½. Your designated beneficiary(ies), other than a spouse who is the sole beneficiary, must elect either option (i) or (ii) by December 31 of the year following the year of your death. If no election is made, distribution will be calculated in accordance with option (ii). In the case of distributions under option (ii), distributions must commence by December 31 of the year following the year of your death. If your spouse is the designated beneficiary, distributions need not commence until December 31 of the year you would have attained age 70½, if later. If a beneficiary(ies) other than an individual or qualified trust as defined in the Regulations is named, you will be treated as having no designated beneficiary(ies) of your SIMPLE IRA for purposes of determining the distribution period. If there is no designated beneficiary of your SIMPLE IRA, the entire SIMPLE IRA must be distributed by December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death.

Unless otherwise specified; your spouse beneficiary shall have all rights as granted under the Code or applicable Regulations to treat your SIMPLE IRA as his or her own.

If we so choose, for any reason (e.g., due to limitations of our charter or bylaws), we may require that a beneficiary of a deceased SIMPLE IRA owner take total distribution of all SIMPLE IRA assets by December 31 of the year following the year of death.

If your beneficiary fails to remove a required minimum distribution after your death, an additional penalty tax of 50 percent is imposed on the amount of the required minimum distribution that should have been taken but was not. Your beneficiary must file IRS Form 5329 along with his or her income tax return to report and remit any additional taxes to the IRS.

J. QUALIFYING LONGEVITY ANNUITY CONTRACTS AND RMDs: A qualifying longevity annuity contract (QLAC) is a deferred annuity contract that, among other requirements, must guarantee lifetime income starting no later than age 85. The total premiums paid to QLACs in your IRAs must not exceed 25 percent (up to $125,000) of the combined value of your IRAs (excluding Roth IRAs). The $125,000 limit is subject to cost-of-living adjustments each year.

When calculating your RMD, you may reduce the prior year end account value by the value of QLACs that your SIMPLE IRA holds as investments.

For more information on QLACs, you may wish to refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF ESTABLISHING A SIMPLE IRA

A. DEDUCTIBILITY FOR SIMPLE IRA CONTRIBUTIONS: You may not take a deduction for the amounts contributed to your SIMPLE IRA as either Employee elective deferrals or Employer contributions. However, Employee elective deferrals to a SIMPLE IRA will reduce your taxable income. Further, Employer SIMPLE IRA contributions, including earnings, will not be taxable to you until you take a distribution from your SIMPLE IRA.

Participation in your Employer's SIMPLE IRA Plan renders you an active Participant for purposes of determining whether or not you can deduct contributions to a Traditional IRA.

B. CONTRIBUTION DEADLINE: SIMPLE IRA deferral contributions must be deposited into the SIMPLE IRA as soon as administratively possible, but in no event later than 30 days following the month in which you would have otherwise received the money. Employer matching or nonelective contributions must be deposited no later than the due date for filing the Employer's tax return, including extensions.

C. TAX CREDIT FOR CONTRIBUTIONS: You may be eligible to receive a tax credit for your SIMPLE IRA deferrals. This credit will be allowed in addition to any tax deduction that may apply, and may not exceed $1,000 in a given year. You may be eligible for this tax credit if you are

- age 18 or older as of the close of the taxable year,
- not a dependent of another taxpayer, and
- not a full-time student.

The credit is based upon your income (see chart below), and will range from 0–50% of eligible contributions. In order to determine the amount of your contributions, add all of the deferrals made to your SIMPLE IRA and reduce these contributions by any distributions that you may have taken during the testing period. The testing period begins two years prior to the year for which the credit is sought and ends on the tax return due date (including extensions) for the year for which the credit is sought. In order to determine your tax credit, multiply the applicable percentage from the chart below by the amount of your contributions that do not exceed $2,000.

* Adjusted gross income includes foreign Earned Income and income from Guam, America Samoa, North Mariana Islands and Puerto Rico. AGI limits are subject to cost-of-living adjustments each year.

D. TAX-DEFERRED EARNINGS: The investment earnings of your SIMPLE IRA are not subject to federal income tax until distributions are made (or, in certain instances, when distributions are deemed to be made).

E. EXCESS CONTRIBUTIONS: If you defer more than the maximum allowable limit for the tax year, you have an excess deferral and must correct it. Excess deferrals, adjusted for earnings, must be distributed from your SIMPLE IRA.

If your Employer mistakenly contributes too much to your SIMPLE IRA as an Employer contribution, your Employer may effect distribution of the Employer excess amount, adjusted for earnings through the date of distribution. The amount distributed to the Employer is not includable in your gross income.

F. INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING: Any withdrawal from your SIMPLE IRA is subject to federal income tax withholding. You may, however, elect not to have withholding apply to your SIMPLE IRA withdrawal. If withholding is applied to your withdrawal, not less than 10 percent of the amount withdrawn must be withheld.

G. EARLY DISTRIBUTION PENALTY TAX: If you receive a SIMPLE IRA distribution before you attain age 59½, an additional early distribution penalty tax of 10 percent (25 percent if less than two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer) will apply to the taxable amount of the distribution unless one of the following exceptions apply. 1) Death. After your death, payments made to your beneficiary are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 2) Disability. If you are disabled at the time of distribution, you are not subject to the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. In order to be disabled, a physician must determine that your impairment can be expected to result in death or to be of long, continued, and indefinite duration. 3) Substantially equal periodic payments. You are not subject to the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax if you are taking a series of substantially equal periodic payments (at least annual payments) over your life expectancy or the joint life expectancy of you and your beneficiary. You must continue these payments for the longer of five years or until you reach age 59½. 4) Unreimbursed medical expenses. If you take payments to pay for unreimbursed medical expenses that exceed a specified percentage of your adjusted gross income, you will not be subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. For further detailed information and effective dates, you may obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS. The medical expenses may be for you, your spouse, or any dependent listed on your tax return. 5) Health insurance premiums. If you are unemployed and have received unemployment Compensation for 12 consecutive weeks under a federal or state program, you may take payments from your SIMPLE IRA to pay for health insurance premiums without incurring the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 6) Higher education expenses. Payments taken for certain qualified higher education expenses for you, your spouse, or the children or grandchildren of you or your spouse, will not be subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 7) First-time homebuyer. You may take payments from your SIMPLE IRA to use toward qualified acquisition costs of buying or building a principal residence. The amount you may take for this reason may not exceed a lifetime maximum of $10,000. The payment must be used for qualified acquisition costs within 120 days of receiving the distribution. 8) IRS levy. Payments from your SIMPLE IRA made to the U.S. government in response to a federal tax levy are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 9) Qualified reservist distributions. If you are a qualified reservist member called to active duty for more than 179 days or an indefinite period, the payments you take from your SIMPLE IRA during the active duty period are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax.

You must file IRS Form 5329 along with your income tax return to the IRS to report and remit any additional taxes or to claim a penalty tax exception.

H. ROLLOVERS AND CONVERSIONS: Your SIMPLE IRA may be rolled over to another SIMPLE IRA, Traditional IRA, or an eligible Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan of yours, may receive rollover contributions, or may be converted to a Roth IRA, provided that all of the applicable rollover and conversion rules are followed. Rollover is a term used to describe a movement of cash or other property to your SIMPLE IRA from another SIMPLE IRA, Traditional IRA, or from your Employer's qualified retirement Plan, 403(a) annuity Plan, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, or 457(b) eligible governmental deferred Compensation Plan provided a two-year period has been satisfied. The amount rolled over is not subject to taxation or the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. Conversion is a term used to describe the movement of SIMPLE IRA assets to a Roth IRA. A conversion is generally a taxable event. The rollover and conversion rules are generally summarized below. These transactions are often complex. If you have any questions regarding a rollover or conversion, please see a competent tax advisor.

1. SIMPLE IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA Rollovers: Funds distributed from your SIMPLE IRA may be rolled over to a SIMPLE IRA of yours if the requirements of Code section 408(d)(3) are met. A proper SIMPLE IRA to SIMPLE IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received. In the case of a distribution for a first-time homebuyer where there was a delay or cancellation of the purchase, the 60-day rollover period may be extended to 120 days.

You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at irs.gov.

2. Traditional IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA Rollovers: Funds distributed from your Traditional IRA may be rolled over to a SIMPLE IRA if the requirements of IRS Sec. 408(d)(3) are met and two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer. A proper Traditional IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received. In the case of a distribution for a first-time homebuyer where there was a delay or cancellation of the purchase, the 60-day rollover period may be extended to 120 days.

You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

3. Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan-to-SIMPLE IRA Rollovers: You may roll over, directly or indirectly, any eligible rollover distribution from an eligible Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan to a SIMPLE IRA provided two years have passed since you first participated in the SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer. An eligible rollover distribution is defined generally as any distribution from a qualified retirement Plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, 457(b) eligible governmental deferred Compensation Plan, or federal Thrift Savings Plan unless it is a required minimum distribution, hardship distribution, part of a certain series of substantially equal periodic payments, corrective distributions of excess contributions, excess deferrals, excess annual additions and any income allocable to the excess, deemed loan distribution, dividends on Employer securities, the cost of life insurance coverage, or a distribution of Roth elective deferrals from a 401(k), 403(b), governmental 457(b), or federal Thrift Savings Plan.

If you elect to receive your rollover distribution prior to placing it in a SIMPLE IRA, thereby conducting an indirect rollover, your Plan administrator generally will be required to withhold 20 percent of your distribution as a payment of income taxes. When completing the rollover, you may make up out of pocket the amount withheld, and roll over the full amount distributed from your Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan. To qualify as a rollover, your eligible rollover distribution generally must be rolled over to your SIMPLE IRA not later than 60 days after you receive the distribution. In the case of a plan loan offset due to plan termination or severance from employment, the deadline for completing the rollover is your tax return due date (including extensions) for the year in which the offset occurs. Alternatively, you may claim the withheld amount as income, and pay the applicable income tax, and if you are under age 59 1/2, the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax (unless an exception to the penalty applies).

As an alternative to the indirect rollover, your Employer generally must give you the option to directly roll over your Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan balance to a SIMPLE IRA. If you elect the direct rollover option, your eligible rollover distribution will be paid directly to the SIMPLE IRA (or other eligible Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan) that you designate. The 20 percent withholding requirements do not apply to direct rollover.

4. SIMPLE IRA-to-Traditional IRA Rollovers: Funds may be distributed from your SIMPLE IRA and rolled over to your Traditional IRA without IRS penalty, provided two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer. As with SIMPLE IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA rollovers, the requirements of Code section 408(d)(3) must be met. A proper SIMPLE IRA to Traditional IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received.

You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at irs.gov.

5. SIMPLE IRA-to-Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plans Rollovers: You may roll over, directly or indirectly, any eligible rollover distribution from a SIMPLE IRA to an Employer's qualified retirement Plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, or 457(b) eligible governmental deferred Compensation Plan, provided two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer. However, the Employer-Sponsored retirement Plan must allow for such rollover contributions. A SIMPLE IRA may not receive rollovers from Employer-Sponsored retirement Plans.

6. SIMPLE IRA-to-Roth Conversions: If you are eligible to convert all or any portion of your existing SIMPLE IRA(s) into your Roth IRA(s), provided two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA Plan Sponsored by your Employer. If you are age 70½ or older you must remove your required minimum distribution prior to converting your SIMPLE IRA. The amount of the conversion from your SIMPLE IRA to your Roth IRA shall be treated as a distribution for income tax purposes, and is includable in your gross income. Although the conversion amount is generally included in income, the 10 percent early distribution penalty shall not apply to conversions from a SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA, regardless of whether you qualify for any exceptions to the 10 percent penalty.

7. Rollover of IRS Levy: If you receive a refund of eligible retirement plan assets that had been wrongfully levied, you may roll over the amount returned up until your tax return due date (not including extensions) for the year in which the money was returned.

8. Written Election: At the time you make a rollover to a SIMPLE IRA, you must designate in writing to us, your election to treat that contribution as a rollover. Once made, the rollover election is irrevocable.

I. RECHARACTERIZATIONS: For tax years beginning before January 1, 2018, if you have converted from a SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA, you may recharacterize the conversion along with net income attributable back to the SIMPLE IRA. The deadline for completing a recharacterization is your tax filing deadline (including any extensions), for the year in which the conversion was completed. However, effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, you may not recharacterize a Roth IRA conversion.

LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

A. DEDUCTION OF ROLLOVERS AND TRANSFERS: A deduction is not allowed for rollover contributions or transfers.

B. GIFT TAX: Transfers of your SIMPLE IRA assets to a beneficiary made during your life and at your request may be subject to federal gift tax under Code section 2501.

C. SPECIAL TAX TREATMENT: Capital gains treatment and 10-year forward income averaging authorized by Code section 402 do not apply to SIMPLE IRA distributions.

D. PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS: If you or your beneficiary engage in a prohibited transaction with your SIMPLE IRA, as described in Code section 4975, your SIMPLE IRA will lose its tax-deferred status, and you must include the value of your account in your gross income for the taxable year you engage in the prohibited transaction. The following transactions are examples of prohibited transactions with your SIMPLE IRA: 1) taking a loan from your SIMPLE IRA; 2) buying property for personal use (present or future) with SIMPLE IRA funds; or 3) receiving certain bonuses or premiums because of your SIMPLE IRA.

E. PLEDGING: If you pledge any portion of your SIMPLE IRA as collateral for a loan, the amount so pledged will be treated as a distribution, and will be included in your gross income for the taxable year in which you pledge the assets.

OTHER

A. IRS PLAN APPROVAL: Articles I through VII of the agreement used to establish this SIMPLE IRA have been approved by the IRS. The IRS approval is a determination only as to form. It is not an endorsement of the Plan in operation or of the investments offered.

B. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: For further information on SIMPLE IRAs, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), by calling 800-TAX-FORM, or by visiting www.irs.gov on the internet.

C. IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial organizations to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, you are required to provide your name, residential address, date of birth, and identification number. We may require other information that will allow us to identify you.

D. QUALIFIED RESERVIST DISTRIBUTIONS: If you are an eligible qualified reservist who has taken penalty-free qualified reservist distributions from your SIMPLE IRA or retirement Plan, you may re contribute those amounts to an IRA generally within a two-year period from your date of return.

E. DISASTER RELATED RELIEF: If you qualify (for example, you sustained an economic loss due to, or are otherwise considered affected by, certain IRS designated disasters), you may be eligible for favorable tax treatment on distributions, rollovers, and other transactions involving your SIMPLE IRA. Qualified disaster relief may include penalty-tax free early distributions made during specified timeframes for each disaster, the ability to include distributions in your gross income ratably over multiple years, the ability to roll over distributions to an eligible retirement Plan without regard to the 60-day rollover rule, and more. For additional information on specific disasters, including a complete listing of disaster areas, qualification requirements for relief, and allowable disaster-related SIMPLE IRA transactions, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

WITHHOLDING NOTICE INFORMATION

BASIC INFORMATION ABOUT WITHHOLDING FROM PENSIONS AND ANNUITIES.

Generally, Federal income tax withholding applies to payments made from pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, annuity and certain deferred Compensation Plans, IRAs, and commercial annuities.

PURPOSE OF FORM W-4P

Unless you elect otherwise, Federal income tax will be withheld from payments from Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs). You can use Form W-4P, or a substitute form, such as that contained on this form, furnished by the Trustee or Custodian, to instruct your Trustee or Custodian to withhold no tax from your IRA payments (or to revoke this election). This substitute form should be used only for distributions from IRAs which are payable upon demand.

NONPERIODIC PAYMENTS

Payments from IRAs that are payable upon demand are treated as nonperiodic payments for Federal income tax purposes. Generally, nonperiodic payments must have income tax withheld at a rate not less than 10 percent. However, qualified distributions from a Roth IRA are nontaxable and, therefore not subject to withholding. You can elect to have no income tax withheld from a nonperiodic payment (IRA payment) by filing Form W-4P or a substitute form with the Trustee or Custodian and checking the appropriate box on that form. Your election will remain in effect for any subsequent distribution unless you change or revoke it.

For more information, please see Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, available from most IRS offices.

Caution: Remember that there are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, through either withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees should see Publication 505. It explains the estimated tax requirements and penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your IRA using Form W-4P.

REVOKING THE EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING

If you want to revoke your previously filed exemption from withholding, file another Form W-4P with the Trustee or Custodian and check the appropriate box on that form.

STATEMENT OF INCOME TAX WITHHELD FROM YOUR IRA

By January 31 of next year, you will receive a statement from your Trustee or Custodian showing the total amount of your IRA payments and the total Federal income tax withheld during the year. Copies of Form W-4P will not be sent to the IRS by the Trustee or Custodian.

IRA FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The value of your IRA will be solely dependent upon the performance of any investment instrument used to fund your IRA. Therefore, no projection of the growth of your IRA can reasonably be shown or guaranteed. Terms and conditions of the IRA, which affect your investment are listed below.
