Management's Discussion of Fund Performance

SUMMARY OF RESULTS

Balanced Fund (Class C/SVBCX) returned 22.03% (excluding sales charges) for the year ended October 31, 2024. U.S. equity markets performed exceptionally well last year, driven mostly by a handful of large-cap technology-related growth stocks. In September 2024, the U.S. Federal Reserve lowered its benchmark short-term interest rate by 50 basis points, lifting fixed-income markets.

TOP PERFORMANCE CONTRIBUTORS

Information technology | The information technology sector in the fund's equity portfolio contributed to results, led by a position in semiconductor company Broadcom, Inc., which benefited from its strong position in the market for artificial intelligence chips.

High-yield debt | The fund's exposure to high-yield corporate debt boosted results, given the strong returns in the fixed-income sector.

Asset allocation | The fund's average overweight in equities provided a significantly positive performance impact in light of the stock market's strong return during the fiscal year.

TOP PERFORMANCE DETRACTORS

Lululemon Athletica, Inc. | Concern about competitive pressures weighed on the equity shares of this athleisure company, which the fund sold during the fiscal year.

UnitedHealth Group, Inc. | The health insurer's stock declined due to market concerns about the company's profitability associated with the Medicare Advantage program. The fund sold this stock prior to the end of the fiscal year.

Class C shares sold within one year of purchase are subject to a 1.00% contingent deferred sales charge. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost.
