Management's Discussion of Fund Performance

SUMMARY OF RESULTS

Lifestyle Blend Aggressive Portfolio (Class R6/JIIRX) returned 20.46% for the year ended August 31, 2024. Stocks rallied as falling inflation raised hopes that the U.S. Federal Reserve would start cutting interest rates. Positive global growth, steady corporate earnings, and excitement surrounding the adoption of AI added to the upbeat tone. In this environment, U.S. equities, the growth style, and the information technology sector outpaced the market as a whole. Bonds also produced gains, with income accounting for the majority of the category's total return. Credit-oriented categories generally outperformed those with higher interest-rate sensitivity.

TOP PERFORMANCE CONTRIBUTORS

The equity allocation made the largest contribution | The fund's sizable weighting in stock funds allowed it to benefit from the market's strong return.

U.S. large caps were the top contributor in equities | Holdings in international large cap and U.S. mid cap stock funds also helped results.

TOP PERFORMANCE DETRACTORS

There were no major detractors | At a time of positive performance for the financial markets, nearly all of the fund's holdings finished the period with a positive return.

U.S. Treasury STRIPS (Separate Trading of Registered Interest and Principal of Securities) | These holdings, which tend to have above-average interest-rate sensitivity, combined for a small loss.
